

Revive Job Description: Team Leader

Reports to: Revive Founder – Sarah Breuel

Hours: 30-40 hours per week

Roll Summary: a structural architect and team builder who will oversee the growth of the Revive movement.

KEY ATTRIBUTES

1. Developer of people and teams: Have experience and gifting to build and come alongside the team to lead, develop and manage them as they seek to deliver their objectives and programs. This requires a good understanding of key relationships: primarily with the founder; the core team; ambassadors; and key stakeholders.
2. Systems thinker and builder: Operational lead, able to understand the big picture of where the Movement is going, whilst overseeing the operational steps necessary for our professional development. This means simultaneously holding a strong sense of the Director's vision and a good feel for the pulse of the Movement and the pace at which changes need to take place.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Supervise the Revive team, providing direct leadership to the program leaders (below).
- Partner with the founder in the casting of the vision, coordination of key gatherings and the development of the culture within the team and the wider movement.
- Develop operational process necessary to execute the development of the organization and the strategy for growth.
- Lead team in developing and refining strategy of the Revive movement
- Provide the Board, and other key partners, with quarterly and annual reports on relevant progress as requested.
- Develop and oversee the Revive financial management, providing budgets and updates as required.
- Assist the Founder with Donor and Trust management and updates.
- Directly supervises – current program leaders:
 - Conference Director
 - Marketing & Communications Director
 - Revive Ambassadors Coordinator
 - Revive our Hearts retreat Coordinator
 - Revive Discipleship Training School Coordinator

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Share the vision and values of the Revive Movement at a deep level

- Show significant leadership, pastoral, and organizational gifts, with senior staff experience within an international Christian organization or in the marketplace.
- Have a proven record of taking a pioneering organization/ministry to the next level of operational capacity
- Have a proven record of recruiting and supervising high-efficient teams
- Be a big picture thinker with a high capacity to achieve results
- Be able to work effectively with little supervision, think creatively and take initiative
- Have strong fundraising experiences
- Have a vibrant walk with Christ and mature character
- Be a great networker within different organizations and countries
- High capacity to work and lead with people of different cultures, countries and organizations
- Be able to handle pressure and deadlines, work flexible hours as required, and travel to work-team meetings, Revive conference and some retreats.
- Have a strong commitment to hard work and excellence
- Have a lively prayer life

TIME COMMITMENT

This position requires a minimum 2-year commitment (through spring 2025). Depending on the availability of the candidate, it would be a part time (60%) to a full-time position (100%).

PAYMENT

This person will personally fundraise for his/her salary, and will have ministry expenses covered by the Revive Movement.